ACHIM KÖPF

JUDGE

Photography always fascinated Achim Köpf. He has been taken part in international salons since 2003. The most motivating driver for him is his passions to travel, nature, and indeed photography. Photographing teaches him to perceive and see the extraordinarily and intensely. In 2019 the FIAP awarded Achim Köpf by the Distinction of Excellent FIAP Diamond 3 (EFIAP/d3). Since 2019 Köpf has become a member of PSA. In 2019 he achieved the distinction FAPU, Fellow of Asia Photographers Union. For more than ten years, he has worked as a judge in national and international photography competitions. He often presents his travels through slide shows and lectures. Achim likes to enchant the interested audience by the beauty and the magic and bring up the fragility of those fascinating worlds of our planet.

SANJOY SENGUPTA

JUDGE

SANJOY SENGUPTA is Indian photographer living in Muscat, Oman. He, as a self-taught photographer, began photographing in the late 1990s and was influenced by the arts community. A traveler by passion and a chemical engineer by profession working in Oil and Gas surface facility design, he is capturing memories of a travelogue since the late 90s. Across the years, Sanjoy developed a skill to photograph people, culture, tradition, and architecture, while touring extensively across Europe and Southeast Asia. Sanjoy is continuously participating in worldwide photographic competitions (salons) since 2015, for professionals and amateurs, under the patronage of Fédération Internationale de l'Art Photographique (FIAP), Photographic Society of America (PSA), Image Sans Frontiere (ISF), Image Colleague Society (ICS), Global Photographic Union (GPU), International Union of Photographers (IUP), Master of Light and etc. Currently, he is having 5000+ acceptances from 85 different countries, with more than 1000 different titles and 200+ awards.
