A flyboard champion is captured in mid-air, performing a loop. The rider is wearing a blue and yellow flyboard suit and green boots. The flyboard is a black circular device that propels the rider upwards and forwards. The rider is in a crouched position, with their body angled towards the right. The flyboard is emitting a large, powerful jet of water that forms a wide, white arc behind the rider. The background is a clear, bright blue sky. The rider's suit has the word 'FLYBOARD' visible on the back.

A black and white photograph of a minimalist sculpture. Two simple, rectangular crosses are mounted on a white, curved, dome-like surface. The cross in the foreground is smaller and positioned lower, while the second cross is larger and positioned higher on the curve. The background is a plain, light-colored sky. A green horizontal bar is overlaid on the lower left portion of the image, containing text.
