VALENTINA SOKOLSKAYA

JUDGE

EPSA, AFIAP

USA

Valentina Sokolskaya was born in Saint Petersburg (then Leningrad), Russia and moved to USA in 1996. She started to use her family camera when she was 13 and switched to digital in 2005.

Long ago, Valentina noticed that she was looking at the world around her as if through a viewfinder seeking that perfect shot. She is fascinated with the beauty of the world around from gorgeous landscapes to simple flowers in the backyard. The texture of a petal may evoke as much emotion as a mountain. Valentina's specialty is travel photography. It provides her with memories of her trips around the world, and serves as endless source of artistic inspiration. Travels give her a chance to experience and capture the variety of colors, shapes and textures from diverse cultures and remote places.

As a member of the Delaware County Camera Club, Valentina earned several highest awards, including Jacob Santa Maria Photographer of the Year in 2016. She has served her club as Membership Chair since 2010, as Treasurer since 2012

Valentina joined PSA in 2013 and has since occupied a number of volunteer positions, including Who's Who PID Director. She has served as a judge and chair of several international exhibitions. In 2019 she received Early Achievement award. Valentina is actively participating in PSA and FIAP competitions achieving EPSA and AFIAP distinctions. She has exhibited her work in a number of galleries in and around Philadelphia
