BEST AUTHOR

Viesturs Links LATVIA

Viesturs Links was born in the capital city of Latvia – Riga in 1956, when Latvia was invaded by USSR. His father was a sailor and mother was a shop assistant.

After finishing elementary school he began learning to cook in Technical School of Trade. While studying in school he also took part in freestyle wrestling and had success, he was champion of Latvia and had the 5th place in USSR. In 1976 he was enlisted into the Soviet Army as a border guard until 1978, but really still was more engaged in sports.

After serving in army he went back home and in photo club "VEF" started to learn photography. After a year he finally was able to join the legendary photo club "Rīga", where he also became engaged in photo exhibitions. The first serious accomplishment was in 1982 when he received the FIAP bronze medal and a cup for the best portrait in 13th Salon International Art Photographique competition in Macon. In this time he also receives the title of AFIAP. In 1986 he had an absolute break from photography when he didn't even own a camera, which lasted until 1999 when his daughter Alice was born and he was forced to buy the cheapest camera to to making pictures of her. And after that he gradually began to take photos again and send photos to exhibitions again. In total he's took part in more than 100 different exhibitions, received many prizes which include 10 FIAP golden medals and six PSA gold medals.

Currently he's working as a photography lecturer in Latvia's Culture College.

Viesturs is father of three daughters and son. Younger children – Alice and Cristopher – is his consistent models and they are present on the 4 photos in this exhibition.
