Slobodan Krstić was born in 1947, in Dragaljevac village, close to Bijeljina. Photograph became his life in the first year of "Gimnazija" high-school. Namely in 1962, as winner of a literary competition, he received a camera, which remained his strongest "weapon" until today.

He got seriously involved in photograph in 1967, as a member of a photo-club "Elektromašinar" in Belgrade, where he studied Mechanical Engineering. Since 1970 he has been actively exhibiting art photographs throughout former Yugoslavia, as well as abroad.

He had 18 independent exhibitions - two of which abroad - and has participated in over 200 group exhibitions. He received some 50 awards and honors and has got the title of Master of Photography of FSJ and ASIAP. He is also a member of Collegium artisticum in BiH, as well as ULIPURS in the Republic of Srpska.

He published a photo-monograph "Postcard of Bijeljina", but his biggest and most beautiful dream was realized with the very monograph of "Republic of Srpska – Land of Impressions". In that work, Slobodan Krstić portrayed the destiny of his homeland, native ground, his only fatherland, created for everyone to admire for the rest of their life...
